A Mad Dog.

Wednesday afternoon late a dog in the eastern part of the city, belonging to some colored people, had to be killed and is supposed to have been mad. The dog bit a negro man, the owner of the dog, and a negro girl who attempted to tie it after it was observed to be acting in a suspicious manner.

Self Protection

demands that you be on the alert to see that you get Painkiller (Perry Davis) when you ask for it. Some dealers will try and persuade you to take something else, claimed to be just as good; insist upon getting Painkiller, the remedy which has been the world's family doctor for 60 years; it never fails to stop diarrhea, griping pains in the stomach or bowels, dysentery, etc. Large bottles 25 and 50 cents.

Won't Follow Advice After Paying For It.

In a recent article a prominent physician says, "It is next to impossible for the physician to get his patients to carry out any prescribed course of hygiene or diet to the smallest extent; he has but one resort left, namely, the drug treatment. When medicines are used for chronic constipation, the most mild and gentle obtainable, such as Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets, should be employed. Their use is not followed by constipation as they leave the bowels in a natural and healthy condition. For sale by W. E. Pelham & Son.

Bavarian Harps.

Mr. H. S. Nace and other representatives arrived in the city a few days ago for the purpose of introducing a new musical instrument of his own manufacture, The Bavarian Harp. It is a pretty and sweet-toned little instrument that any one can play in a short time and they sold rapidly. The agents sold in Newberry about 65 of the instruments at $4.75 each, and the air around town is full of music "Billy" Weddington was with Mr. Nace, and his friends were glad to see him. The agency for the harp was left with Mr. J. H. West and those who were so unfortunate as not to get one can do so yet.

Holds Up a Congressman.

"At the end of the campaign," writes Champ Clark, Missouri's brilliant congressman, "from overwork, nervous tension, loss of sleep and constant speaking I had about utterly collapsed. It seemed that all the organs in my body were out of order, but three bottles of Electric Bitters made me all right. It's the best all-round medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter." [News and Courier, 24th.]

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured After Fourteen Years of Suffering.

"I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says Josh Edgar, of Gormantown, Cal. "I was able to be around but constantly suffered. I tried everything I could hear of and last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured, and I am happy to say it has not since returned." Why not use this liniment and get well? It is for sale by W. E. Pelham & Son.

Newberrians at the Head.

It is indeed a coincidence that three Newberrians should stand at the head of three of the important and leading secret orders of the State, and it is indeed an honor to Newberry to have her worthy sons fill these honorable positions. For instance, at the meeting this week at Greenwood, Hon. Geo. S. Mower was elected Grand Chancellor of the State for the Knights of Pythias; only a few weeks ago Supt. J. M. Davis, of the Newberry Cotton Mills, was elected Grand Master of the Independent Order Odd Fellows, of this State, and only a few weeks before that Mr. J. H. Hair was elected Great Sachem of the State at the Great Council Improved Order Red Men.

This certainly shows that Newberry is at the front as far as honors are concerned in secret orders.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. Editor: Please allow us a little space in your paper to thank the many kind people who by their words and deeds did all they could to lighten our burden and comfort our bleeding hearts during the last and illness of our dear little son. We extend our heartfelt thanks to one and all and sincerely hope that in their time of bereavement they may have such kind and considerate friends as we had. May the God of all mercy bless them abundantly.

No Loss of Time.

I have sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for years, and would rather be out of coffee and sugar than it. I sold five bottles of it yesterday to three men at work again this morning. H. R. Phelps, Plymouth, Oklahoma. As will be seen by the above the threshers were able to keep on with their work without losing a single day's time. You should keep a bottle of this Remedy in your home. For sale by W. E. Pelham & Son.

A Tribute.

William D. Halfacre the only son of the late David N. and Sara C. Halfacre, was born on December 14th 1857, and died on March 28, 1902, being 44 years, 3 months, and 14 days of age.

He was twice married, first to Miss Josephine Caldwell, she having died, he was married to Miss Bettie Maybin on May 4th, 1893, with whom he happily lived until death came. He was united with Bethlehem Evangelical Lutheran church during the days of his early boyhood afterwards he helped to build St. Phillips church and moved his membership there, where he was quietly laid to rest to await the morn of the resurrection. He had been in ill health for some time and was stricken with a severe form of typhoid fever almost six weeks before the end came.

He suffered with perfect resignation, bore his sufferings as one to whom a blissful immortality had a charm, and quietly fell asleep in Jesus. All of the kind and patient attention that human hands could give were of no avail, for the Divine hands far greater than ours, had seen fit to take him in their tender care. He expressed his thoughts of dying and said he had no fear that he felt safe in the arms of Jesus.

No dear husband you can never know how much I miss thee—
Thou no more our songs shall know,
Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is led;
Then in heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tear is shed.

a pretty steep price for linseed oil, but that's the figures you pay when you buy a thin ready-mixed paint, for it's nearly all oil. Don't jump to the other extreme and buy a paste paint full of barytes. Let us talk to you about Longman & Martinez Paint semi-paste, which takes a gallon of oil to a gallon of the paint and is better and cheaper than white lead.

A Gentle Hint.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature,—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day,—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Roschke's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of the four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, Severe Coughs, Croup, or any disorder of the Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. Get a sample bottle free from W. E. Pelham & Son. Regular size, 75 cents. Got Green's Special Almanac.
